+447801563881	I'm now safe with my family. The ambulance people treated me for shock and luckily I had a supply of sleeping pills. Without going into specifics, Ec and I had a brief fling, encouraged by Freddy. I woke up at his yesterday morning and he was full of adoration. Then once I've finished work and I am driving to my family, he calls me up and says I am an uncool manipulative bitch and to never contact him again. +447801563881	I just never want to see him again. I can only assume he was on drugs or something when he spoke to me. It is especially hard because I told him my depression story, then he told me that I was being manipulative and attention seeking. He has also de-friended me on Facebook. I don't understand what I have done wrong??? Xxx	25/12/2012 16:38:23 UTC (Device)	25/12/2012 15:03:50 (Network)	Read	Incoming	Ellie De freitas
